

Goals for children who participate in Good Grief

- Experience a safe, confidential space to explore all the feelings and stages of grief
- Realize they are not alone; that other children have experiences similar to their own
- Learn helpful coping strategies and how to express feelings in healthy ways
- Find acceptance as they discover their personal gifts of strength and resilience

St Andrew is a Rainbows for All Children site and our Good Grief program uses Rainbows curriculum.

For more information go to rainbows.org.

9203 S. University Blvd.
Highlands Ranch, CO 80126-5016
303-794-2683 Fax 303-794-2852
www.st-andrew-umc.com

Supporting kids through family loss and transition

Six-week session:

Mondays, 5:00 - 6:30 pm,
January 28 - March 11
(no session on February 18)

Free program open to the community.

Good Grief is a peer support group . . .

- designed to encourage emotional healing for children and youth who are experiencing grief due to death, divorce or other painful family transitions.
- Age-related groups (ranging from pre-K—high school) are guided by trained, nurturing facilitators in a confidential setting.

Throughout the program, children are encouraged to explore their feelings in a safe environment

Children and youth find understanding, support and acceptance from their peers

Contact Rhonda Smith, Director of Children's Ministries, to register or for more information

rsmith@gostandrew.com
303-468-6824

A drop-in grief group for adults is available during our program. Please contact Rhonda if you are interested in attending.

Name of Children/Youth	Age	Date of Birth	Grade

Address	Phone
_____	_____
E-Mail	Name of parent/guardian
_____	_____
Is parent participating in adult grief support group (meets upstairs at same time as Good Grief)? _____
Is childcare needed for children too young to participate in Good Grief? _____
Reason for considering Good Grief (please indicate divorce or death, how recent, etc.) _____

