Introduction

Dear St. Andrew Community,

As summer shines on us, we have the warmth of community to offer you! This summer, our sermon series will focus on Sabbath. Is this an outdated concept, or can we cultivate it by focusing on a few simple practices in our everyday lives? The series is called, "Sabbath: Finding Rest and Delight for Our Busy Lives." Rev. Mark and the clergy team look forward to sharing this series with you.

Over the next twelve weeks, you will find many opportunities to enrich your summer in every area of St. Andrew's community. This listing is organized by ministry area, including an index and contact information on the back pages. Check out a few of the highlights you'll find inside:

- Dream.Think.Be.Do – a NEW Sunday morning drop-in class for adults at 10:30 am
- Intergenerational Hikes – all summer!
- Family Ministries – including goat yoga (it's true)
- Care and Support Groups
- A special Visiting Scholar, Dr. Carrie Doehring, on processing moral stress and injury
- Outreach opportunities for youth and adults with our community partners

We give thanks every day that St. Andrew is such a vibrant, outward-facing community. Please share these opportunities with your friends, neighbors, and colleagues.

Rejoice in your faith this summer!

Rev. Annie Arnoldy, Pastor of Discipleship

Processing Your Experience of a Denominational Crisis

June 3, 10 | Monday | 7:00 – 8:30 pm

Dr. Carrie Doehring and Rev. Annie will discuss the crisis within the United Methodist Church, and how we can process it as it relates to our faith identities. Moral stress is a related shame/guilt-based experience of not being able to live out one's values because of conflicting responsibilities. Moral injury and stress undermine people's sense of authenticity and self-worth, making people question their vocations and commitments. Moral injuries often involve religious and moral struggles, which have many negative health outcomes. Spiritually oriented care offers unique resources for addressing the religious struggles of moral injuries. Contact Rev. Annie Arnoldy.
