I personally believe that, in general, it is morally acceptable for doctors’s to assist a terminally ill patient to end his or her life.

I am personally in favor of Colorado’s End-of-Life Options Act, which authorizes medical aid in dying and allows a terminally ill adult to end his or her life in a peaceful manner.
I have given a great deal of thought to my own wishes for end-of-life medical treatment.
I have completed instructions about what actions should be taken for my health if I am no longer able to make decisions for myself because of illness or incapacity.
